Bryan Harsin is in his second year as Auburn's head football coach after spending the previous seven seasons as head coach at Boise State where he compiled a 69-19 record while winning three Mountain West Conference titles. Harsin was named Auburn's 28th head football coach on December 22, 2020.

A former Boise State quarterback, assistant coach and offensive coordinator, Harsin is 82-31 overall as a head coach – including one season at Arkansas State – and has directed his programs to bowl games each season. His impressive resume at Boise saw him lead the Broncos to five 10-win seasons, seven consecutive bowl appearances and six MWC West Division Championships. He led the program to a 5-2 mark and a trip to the MWC championship game in 2020.

Harsin's first Auburn program registered a pair of ranked wins, including against No. 10 Ole Miss and at No. 17 Arkansas. He also became the first Auburn coach in 22 years to defeat LSU in Baton Rouge, as the Tigers registered a thrilling come-from-behind victory. Four players earned All-SEC honors and cornerback Roger McCreary received first team All-America accolades. For just the second time in Auburn football history, two players earned CoSIDA Academic All-America honors in the same season as Nick Brahms and Anders Carlson were honored for their academic and athletic excellence.

In his debut season Harsin led his alma mater back to where it rose to national prominence. Boise State went 12-2 in 2014, winning its first outright Mountain West Championship and capping the campaign with a 38-30 victory over Arizona in the 2014 VIZIO Fiesta Bowl.

The victory in the Fiesta Bowl was the third such win for the Broncos in the previous nine seasons. Harsin, serving as offensive coordinator in the first two Fiesta Bowl victories, has been a part of each of the school's three appearances in the game.

The team's victory in the 2014 Mountain West Football Championship marked Boise State's first outright league title since joining the conference in 2011, and the first overall since 2009. The only alumnus to lead the Broncos as head coach in the history of Boise State, Harsin has won conference championships as a student-athlete, assistant coach and head coach.

Boise State also captured MW titles in 2017 and 2019, giving Harsin three in six seasons. In 2017, the Broncos capped the championship campaign with a 38-28 victory over Oregon in the Las Vegas Bowl. The Broncos concluded the year at 11-3 overall and ranked No. 22 in both the Associated Press and Coaches Polls.

The Broncos went 12-2 in 2019, recording the team's first perfect 8-0 conference record since joining the MW and earning the school's fifth all-time appearance in the Las Vegas Bowl. Boise State concluded the season ranked in both the AP (No. 23) and Coaches Polls (No. 22) and were No. 19 in the final rankings of the College Football Playoff Poll, the third-straight season finishing in the top 25 of the CFP.

In 2015, the Broncos went 9-4, climbing as high as No. 20 in both the AP and Coaches Polls. Boise State capped the 2015 campaign with a 55-7 victory over Northern Illinois in the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl, the fifth-largest margin of victory in the history of bowl games. In 2016, Harsin guided the Broncos to a 10-3 record and an appearance in the Motel 6 Cactus Bowl.

In 2018, the Broncos concluded the season ranked in all three major polls - No. 23 in the AP Poll, No. 24 in the Coaches Poll and No. 25 in the CFP Rankings. The Broncos have been ranked in the top 25 in each of Harsin's six seasons, climbing as high as No. 13 in both the AP and Coaches Polls in 2016, and No. 13 in the Coaches Poll in 2019, Boise State's highest rankings since finishing eighth and sixth in each, respectively, in 2011.

Boise State went 10-3 in 2018, boasting the Mountain West Offensive Player of the Year in quarterback Brett Rypien – one of 11 All-Mountain West honorees. Rypien concluded his career as the Mountain West's all-time leader in career 300-yard passing games (21), completions (1,036) and passing yards (13,581). He also ranked second in league history in both wins by a starting quarterback (37) and career attempts (1,619), and tied for second in career touchdown passes (90).

Curtis Weaver made it three-straight MW Player of the Year honors for the Broncos in 2019, following Rypien's nod in 2018 and Leighton Vander Esch's Defensive Player of the Year award in 2017.

Defensive end DeMarcus Lawrence (2014) started the streak, followed by running back Jay Ajayi (2015), linebacker Kamalei Correa (2016), running back Jeremy McNichols (2017), linebacker Leighton Vander Esch (2018), running back Alexander Mattison (2019) and Weaver.

Vander Esch was a first-round selection of the Dallas Cowboys after foregoing his final season of eligibility. In his rookie season, Vander Esch was named second-team All-Pro by the Associated Press.

The Broncos won at least 10 games in five of Harsin's seven seasons, giving Boise State 17 since joining what is now known as the Football Bowl Subdivision in 1996. The total ranked second behind only Ohio State during that time.

For his efforts in 2014, Harsin was named a finalist for the Paul "Bear Bryant" National Coach of the Year Award, the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year Award and the Dodd Trophy, given annually by the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year Foundation. He was also named the nation's top first-year head coach by the Football Writers Association of America.

A graduate of Capital High School in Boise, he played quarterback for the Broncos from 1995-99. Following his graduation from Boise State with a degree in business management, Harsin coached running backs and receivers at Eastern Oregon in 2000.

The former Bronco letterwinner began his coaching career at Boise State as a graduate assistant in 2001, before taking over the tight ends as a full-time assistant coach from 2002-05. When Chris Petersen was hired as head coach in 2006, Harsin assumed the role of offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Harsin was Petersen's offensive coordinator for five of his eight seasons as head coach (2006-10) and was named a finalist for the 2009 Broyles Award, awarded annually to the nation's top assistant coach. Boise State went 61-5 during his tenure as offensive coordinator.

With Harsin on staff, Boise State won 11 conference championships in 17 seasons.

Following the 2010 season, Harsin went to Texas, where he served as co-offensive coordinator from 2011-12. While with the Longhorns, Harsin helped guide the ascension of an offense that ranked 88th in scoring prior to his arrival, to No. 24 nationally in 2012 (36.1).

Harsin then earned his first head coaching opportunity at Arkansas State in 2013, which claimed a share of the Sun Belt Conference championship and a berth in the GoDaddy.com Bowl that season.

Harsin and his wife, Kes, have two daughters, Devyn Lynn and Dayn McKenna, and a son, Davis.

COACHING STAFF

BRAD BEDELL

TIGHT ENDS/ASSISTANT HEAD COACH

Brad Bedell enters his second season as Auburn's tight ends/assistant head coach. Bedell spent the previous four seasons as Boise State's offensive line coach, including run game coordinator last season. A former All-American at Colorado, Bedell spent six seasons in the NFL prior to joining the coaching ranks.

Bedell coached Auburn's tight ends to one of its most productive seasons in program history in 2021. John Samuel Shenker broke the school single-season tight end record for receptions (33) and receiving yards (413), while Bedell's unit combined for 55 receptions, the most by an Auburn tight end group since 2002.

In four seasons at Boise State, Bedell's offensive line had nine players garner 13 All-Mountain West honors, including five first team honors. Three Bronco linemen earned all-conference honors in 2020.

Four of the Broncos' five starting offensive linemen in 2019 received All-Mountain West recognition, with left tackle Ezra Cleveland and left guard John Molchon each being named first team. Center Garrett Larson earned second-team honors, while right guard Eric Quevedo was named honorable mention. Cleveland would go on to be selected in the second round (58th overall) of the 2020 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings.

In 2019, the Bronco line extended Boise State's streak of seasons with a 1,000-yard rusher to 11, as freshman George Holani rushed for 1,014 yards. The 11-straight individual rushing performances for Boise State was the active longest streak in the country and second longest in college football history. The line also provided protection and paved the way for a Boise offense that was 19th in the country in scoring (34.7 ppg).

In Bedell's first year with the Broncos, four of Boise State's starting five linemen received all-conference recognition, highlighted by center Mason Hampton, who received first-team accolades. Hampton was also named a finalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy, awarded annually to college football's top scholar-athlete. Additionally, Ezra Cleveland, Archie Lewis and John Molchon picked up all-league recognition.

In 2018, Cleveland and Molchon repeated as all-league selections, each picking up first-team honors after helping to pave the way for a 10th-straight 1,000-yard individual rusher. The Broncos' offensive line also protected quarterback Brett Rypien, who was named the Mountain West Offensive Player of the Year following the season and helped Boise State conclude the season ranked in the top 25 nationally in both total offense (21st; 459.5 yards per game) and scoring offense (20th; 35.4 points per game).

Bedell, who previously worked under Harsin at Arkansas State, previously served as the assistant head coach and offensive line coach at Lamar, where he was hired in January 2017 following a season at Baylor.

Bedell began his coaching career as an offensive intern at Colorado (2007-09), his alma mater, where he garnered first-team All-America and All-Big 12 First Team honors at right guard following his senior campaign in 1999. He then went on to play six seasons in the National Football League, spending time with the Browns (2000-01), Dolphins (2003), Packers (2004-05) and Texans (2006).

Bedell's debut as a full-time assistant was spent at Northern Colorado in 2010, where he mentored a pair of All-Big Sky selections as offensive line coach. He moved on to UC Davis in 2011, serving as the team's offensive line coach and run game coordinator, again producing a pair of all-league selections.

He coached at New Mexico State in 2012, with another pupil picking up all-conference accolades, before joining Harsin at Arkansas State in 2013. A-State captured the Sun Belt Championship and a victory in the GoDaddy Bowl that season, helping to lead an offensive attack that averaged more than 200 rushing yards per game behind two All-Sun Belt honorees along the offensive line.

Following two seasons as the offensive line coach at Texas State (2014-15), Bedell joined the Baylor staff as an offensive quality control assistant and assistant director of operations in the spring of 2016 and remained on staff for the duration of the 2016 season.

ROC BELLANTONI

EDGE LINEBACKERS/SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Roc Bellantoni was named Auburn's edge linebackers coach and special teams coordinator in February 2022 after serving the previous year as a defensive analyst for the Tigers. Bellantoni has 28 years of coaching experience, including 15 years as a defensive coordinator and another four years as a special teams coordinator.

Over his career, Bellantoni has coached the defensive line and linebackers, served as defensive coordinator at three different stops, and reached the FCS playoffs seven different times, to go with two bowl appearances (Buffalo, 2018, Washington State, 2019). He has mentored 16 players who played professionally, including three NFL Draft picks.

Prior to coming to Auburn in 2021, Bellantoni was the special teams coordinator and defensive assistant at Utah State in 2020. During his tenure with the Aggies he served as interim defensive coordinator for two games. He spent the 2019 season as the interim defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Washington State, where he helped the Cougars to an appearance in the Cheez-It Bowl. At WSU, two of his players earned all-Pac 12 honors in junior Jahad Woods and freshman Travion Brown. Woods finished the regular season ninth in the country and second in the Pac-12 with 121 tackles, most by a Cougar since 1996.

Bellantoni spent two seasons at Buffalo, where he served as special teams coordinator and defensive ends coach in 2018 and director of player personnel in 2017. The Bulls' defense ranked second in the MAC under his guidance and played in the 2018 Dollar General Bowl.

Bellantoni arrived at Buffalo from Florida Atlantic, where he spent three seasons as the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach from 2014-16. At FAU, Bellantoni coached Trey Hendrickson, currently a defensive end for the New Orleans Saints. Hendrickson ended his storied career, three seasons of which came under Bellantoni, as the program's all-time leader in sacks, tackles for loss, quarterback hurries and forced fumbles.

Prior to FAU, he coached the defensive line and special teams at Villanova. The 2013 Villanova team finished the season ranked No. 6 in the NCAA SRS rankings and the 2012 squad won the Colonial Athletic Association title and made a FCS playoffs appearance.

A graduate of Iona, Bellantoni gained his most coaching experience at Eastern Illinois. He was with the Panthers from 2001-11, serving as defensive line coach, defensive coordinator (2007-11), and finally, associate head coach (2007-11). Bellantoni helped Eastern Illinois win five Ohio Valley Conference Championships (2009, 2006, 2005, 2002, and 2001) and make six NCAA playoff appearances.

Bellantoni also served as the acting head coach at Eastern Illinois for the final two games of the 2007 season, which included its FCS playoff appearance. Bellantoni also had coaching stints at Drake and Buena Vista University. He started his coaching career at Mamaroneck High School.

He and his wife, Jenny, have four sons, Gino, Marco, Ricky and Nico.

JIMMY BRUMBAUGH

DEFENSIVE LINE

A former All-SEC defensive lineman at Auburn, Jimmy Brumbaugh joined the Tigers in January 2022 as defensive line coach. Brumbaugh has nearly 20 years of coaching experience and returns to the Plains after serving as a defensive line analyst at Oregon in 2021, helping the Ducks to a 10-4 record and Top 25 finish.

In 2019 and 2020 seasons, Brumbaugh was the defensive line coach at Colorado and the co-defensive coordinator/defensive line coach at Tennessee. Before joining the staff at Colorado, Brumbaugh was the co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Maryland (2017-18) for two seasons.

He had spent the prior four seasons at Kentucky (2013-16) establishing himself as one of the top defensive line coaches in the country. He also served as an assistant coach at Louisiana Tech (2008-09) and Syracuse (2010-11) and was an assistant strength and conditioning coordinator at LSU (2006-07). At LSU, Brumbaugh helped the Tigers win a BCS National Championship in 2007.

A total of 17 players developed under Brumbaugh have been selected in the NFL Draft, including six first rounders.

During his time as a player at Auburn from 1995-99, Brumbaugh started 44 of his 48 career games, recording 291 tackles and 15 sacks. Brumbaugh was named to the SEC All-Freshman team in 1995, garnered second-team All-SEC honors as a sophomore in 1996 before earning first-team All-SEC accolades as a junior in 1997.

Brumbaugh was a member of the Tigers' 1997 SEC Western Division champion team. He played in only three games in 1998 due to injury. He was granted a medical hardship waiver and had 51 tackles, six sacks and three fumble recoveries after returning for the 1999 season.

Brumbaugh played in the Blue-Gray Classic All-Star Game following the 1999 campaign and participated in preseason camp with the San Francisco 49ers in 2000 after signing as an undrafted free agent.

Brumbaugh returned to Auburn after his pro career to finish up his degree, graduating in 2004. He then got into coaching, starting out as a student assistant for Jacksonville State, which won the 2004 Ohio Valley Conference. His first full-time position followed the next year, as he was the defensive line coach at Chattanooga in 2005.

ZAC ETHERIDGE

SECONDARY/ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Zac Etheridge, a team captain on Auburn's 2010 national championship team, is in his second season coaching at Auburn, serving as secondary and associate head coach. Prior to Auburn, Etheridge spent two seasons as cornerbacks coach at the University of Houston.

In his first season back on the Plains as cornerbacks coach, Etheridge coached Roger McCreary, who earned first team All-America honors and was a Bednarik Award semifinalist. A first team All-SEC selection, McCreary was a second-round pick of the Tennessee Titans in the 2022 NFL Draft.

At Houston, Etheridge mentored cornerbacks Marcus Jones and Damarion Williams, who thrived under his direction. Jones was named an All-American in 2020 at cornerback by Pro Football Focus (PFF) and was an All-American selection as a punt return specialist by the FWAA, CBS/247 Sports and the Phil Steele Magazine. Jones also was graded as one of the top-5 corners in 2020 by PFF. Under two seasons of Etheridge's tutelage, Williams blossomed into an all-conference player in 2020, starting 19 consecutive games for the Cougars.

Etheridge played a key role in Houston's improvement on defense in 2020, as the Cougars finished fourth in the American Athletic Conference in total defense (398.5 yards per game). Houston's defense also saw improvements from 2019 to 2020 in passing yards allowed, third down conversion defense percentage and tackles for loss.

This past December he was selected to the American Football Coaches Association 2021 35 Under 35 Coaches Leadership Institute. The prestigious program is aimed at identifying and developing premier, future leaders in the football coaching profession and is part of the AFCA Convention.

Prior to his arrival at Houston, Etheridge spent a season at the University of Louisiana, where he helped lead the Ragin Cajuns to a spot in both the Cure Bowl and the Sun Belt Conference Championship.

Etheridge spent two seasons at Western Carolina from 2016-17, where he started coaching the cornerbacks in 2016 before being elevated to a full-time position as an assistant coach with his focus switching to WCU's outside linebackers in 2017.

His coaching career began as a graduate assistant coach at Penn State under head coach Bill O'Brien, followed by two years as a defensive graduate assistant at Georgia Tech where he worked closely with the secondary.

A four-year starter at Auburn, Etheridge broke his neck during his junior season in 2009 against Ole Miss. Nine months later, after extensive rehabilitation, Etheridge returned to the starting lineup for Auburn and captained his team along a memorable run to the national title at the end of the 2010 season, finishing second on the team with 69 tackles, intercepting three passes, and returning a fumble 47 yards for a touchdown against Arkansas.

Etheridge garnered freshman All-America status from numerous publications following the 2007 season, starting 12 of Auburn's 13 games. He led Auburn with 75 tackles in 2008 and was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 2009.

A native of Troy, Ala., Etheridge received the second annual James Owens Courage Award from Auburn in 2013. The award, named for the school's first African-American football player, was established to honor a player who has shown courage in the face of adversity.

A 2009 Auburn graduate with a degree in political science, Etheridge has a daughter, Mia.

WILL FRIEND OFFENSIVE LINE

Will Friend is in his second year as Auburn's offensive line coach. Friend spent the previous three seasons as the offensive line coach at Tennessee and, prior to that, was the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Colorado State.

While at Tennessee, the Philadelphia, Miss. native mentored two-time All-SEC first team lineman Trey Smith. In 2019, UT offensive linemen Wanya Morris and Darnell Wright were both selected to the Freshman All-SEC squad, while Morris was tabbed a Freshman All-American.

Friend came to Tennessee after a three-year stint (2015-17) as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Colorado State. In 2017, he led an offense that ranked 11th in the nation in total offense at 492.5 yards per game. Colorado State's 33.4 points per game in 2017 led the conference and ranked 31st in the nation.

Prior to Colorado State, Friend served as the offensive line coach at Georgia in 2011 before adding the title of running game coordinator in 2013. During his final season in Athens in 2014, Friend helped guide a Bulldogs' offense that averaged 41.3 points per game, which ranked eighth nationally, and racked up 457.8 yards of total offense per game.

A four-year starting guard at Alabama, a two-time All-SEC selection, and a member of Alabama's Team of the Decade for the 1990s, Friend began his coaching career at West Alabama in 2001. He was an offensive assistant at Tuscaloosa Central High School in 2002 before joining the Georgia staff as a graduate assistant (2003-04).

He spent the 2005-06 seasons as the offensive line coach at Gardner-Webb, then had a four-year stint (2007-10) as the offensive line coach at UAB. Overall, Friend has coached nine offensive linemen who have been selected in the NFL Draft.

Friend was a Parade Magazine All-America selection as a senior at Neshoba Central High in Philadelphia, Miss. He earned his bachelor's degree in human performance from Alabama in 1998.

A 1998 graduate from the University of Alabama, Friend and his wife, Carrie, have three children – Katie, Brooks and Charlie.

IKE HILLIARD

WIDE RECEIVERS

Former SEC great and 12-year National Football League veteran Ike Hilliard is in his first year as wide receivers coach at Auburn. An All-American at Florida in 1996, Hilliard spent the previous 11 seasons coaching in the NFL, most recently as wide receivers coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

In 2021, Hilliard coached Diontae Johnson who earned his first All-Pro honors after leading the Steelers with 107 receptions for 1,161 yards and eight touchdowns.

During the 2020 season, Hilliard's first in Pittsburgh, the Steelers became just the seventh team in NFL history to have five different players catch at least five touchdown passes in a single season. Wide receiver Chase Claypool led all rookie receivers in touchdown catches (9), while finishing second in total touchdowns (11) and fourth in receiving yards (873) among all rookies.

Hilliard served as the wide receivers coach in Washington for seven seasons over two different stints (2012, 2014-19). He also was the wide receivers coach in Buffalo (2013) and assistant wide receivers coach in Miami (2011).

Under Hilliard's tutelage in 2019, wideout Terry McLaurin had one of the top rookie receiving seasons in club history, leading the team in three major receiving categories with 58 catches for 919 yards and 7 TD receptions. His 919 receiving yards and 7 TDs ranked second in franchise rookie history.

Hilliard guided a young wide receiver corps in 2017 that helped quarterback Kirk Cousins become the first player in team history to record a third consecutive 4,000-yard passing season.

Hilliard's group had a major role in Washington's record-setting offense in 2016, that set single-season team records in yards per game (403.4), yards per play (6.40), net passing yards (4,758), completions (407), passing first downs (226) and 500-yard games (three). Veteran wideouts Pierre Garçon (1,041) and DeSean Jackson (1,005) both eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark, representing the first time since 1999 that Washington featured multiple 1,000-yard receivers.

During the team's NFC East championship season in 2015, Garçon posted 72 receptions, while Jackson recorded 528 receiving yards and 4 TDs despite being limited by injury. Hilliard's guidance also helped Crowder to a Washington rookie record 59 receptions in 2015.

In his return to D.C. in 2014, Hilliard managed Jackson who led the team with 1,169 receiving yards on 56 receptions, becoming the fifth member of the club to post 1,000 receiving yards in his first season in Washington.

Hilliard served as wide receivers coach for the Buffalo Bills in 2013, helping mold a young group that included rookie second-round pick Robert Woods (40 receptions for 587 yards with three TDs) and rookie third-round pick Marquise Goodwin (17 receptions for 283 yards with three TDs).

In his first stint with Washington in 2012, Hilliard guided the team's receivers to the franchise's first division title since 1999.

Hilliard served as the assistant wide receivers coach for the Miami Dolphins in 2011. He helped develop wide receiver Brandon Marshall, who was selected for his third Pro Bowl and first as a member of the Dolphins.

As a player, Hilliard was a first-round selection in the 1997 NFL Draft (No. 7 overall). He played 12 seasons, eight with the New York Giants (1997-2004) and four with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2005-08). In 161 career games (106 starts), Hilliard caught 546 passes for 6,397 yards and 35 TDs.

Hilliard played collegiately at the University of Florida from 1994-96, catching 126 passes for 2,214 yards and 26 TDs. He earned first-team All-SEC and All-American honors as a junior. In the final game that season, he recorded 7 catches for 150 yards and 3 TDs to help lead the Gators to a 52-20 Sugar Bowl win to secure the school's first national championship.

Hilliard is a native of Patterson, La. He and his wife, Lourdes, have five children, Kye, Kalyn, Leila, Ilysa and Jewels.

ERIC KIESAU OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS

Eric Kiesau was promoted to offensive coordinator at Auburn in February 2022 after serving as wide receivers coach in 2021. Prior to joining the Auburn football program, Kiesau spent four seasons at Boise State. He came to Auburn as a senior offensive analyst and was promoted to wide receivers coach in September 2021.

The 2020 campaign at Boise State marked his first as the program's sole offensive coordinator after serving as co-offensive coordinator in 2019. Kiesau worked with the Bronco quarterbacks in 2020 after overseeing the wide receiver corps from 2017-19.

In Kiesau's first season helping oversee the team's offensive effort, the Broncos had eight members of the offensive earn All-Mountain West honors, including receivers John Hightower and Khalil Shakir.

Under Kiesau's tutelage, Hightower enjoyed a breakout senior season in 2019, leading the Broncos in receiving yards (943) and touchdown receptions (eight). Hightower would go on to be selected in the 2020 NFL Draft, going in the fifth round (No. 168 overall) to the Philadelphia Eagles. Shakir, in his sophomore season, led the Broncos with 63 catches in 2019, finishing second on the team in receiving yards (872) and touchdown receptions (six).

In Kiesau's debut season with the Broncos, wide receiver Cedrick Wilson broke Boise State's single-season receiving record, picking up 1,511 yards – the second-most in the country in 2017. Wilson was named first-team All-Mountain West and was selected in the fifth round of the NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

Following Wilson's departure, a pair of wide receivers had career years in 2018. Both Sean Modster (978) and A.J. Richardson (825) recorded more than 800 receiving yards, just the second time a Boise State duo has accomplished the feat in the last eight seasons.

Modster, who had more catches (68), receiving yards (978) and receiving touchdowns (eight) in 2018 than he did for his career entering the season, garnered second-team All-Mountain West honors. Richardson also had more catches (54), receiving yards (825) and receiving touchdowns (eight) in his final collegiate campaign than his previous three seasons combined.

Prior to joining Boise State, Kiesau spent the 2016 season as offensive coordinator at Fresno State, and was the Bulldogs' interim head coach over the final four games of the season. Kiesau served as an analyst for Alabama during a 2015 season that culminated in the Crimson Tide winning the national championship.

Kiesau coached wide receivers at Kansas (2014), California (2002-05; 2011), Colorado (2006-08) and Utah State (2001). He also served as the Jayhawks' interim offensive coordinator over the final five games of the 2014 season, served as offensive coordinator for both Washington (2012-13) and the Buffaloes (2009-10) and was the Golden Bears' passing game coordinator in 2011. He began his career as an assistant coach in 2000, working with Utah State's running backs.

Throughout his career, Kiesau has overseen prolific offenses and helped develop national award winners that went on to play in the National Football League. In his debut season as a wide receivers coach, he mentored the national leader in receptions at Utah State (Kevin Curtis, 100).

Between his two stints at California, Kiesau worked with future NFL All-Pro DeSean Jackson and future NFL Rookie of the Year Keenan Allen. He also mentored Marvin Jones, a fifth-round selection in the 2012 NFL Draft, Lavelle Hawkins, a fourth-round selection (2008), and Geoff McArthur, who established the Golden Bears' career receptions record (202).

While with Colorado, Kiesau worked with Scotty McKnight, who concluded his career as the Buffaloes' all-time leader in receptions (219), receiving yards (2,588) and touchdown receptions (22).

As Washington's offensive coordinator, the Huskies produced a John Mackey Award winner (Austin Saferian-Jenkins), and an All-American running back (Bishop Sankey) that went on to be the first player drafted at his position. The Washington offense also ranked amongst the nation's elite in both total offense (13th; 499.3 yards per game) and scoring offense (18th; 37.9 points per game).

Originally from Pasadena, Calif., Kiesau graduated from Glendale High School and went on to earn a bachelor's degree in communications from Portland State, where he started at quarterback. He also garnered All-America accolades while playing at Glendale Community College.

Kiesau has two children: son Blake and daughter Tayler.

JEFF PITMAN

HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

Jeff Pitman is in his second season as the Auburn head football strength and conditioning coach at Auburn. Pitman came to Auburn after spending the previous eight years on Bryan Harsin's staff at Boise State (2014-20) and Arkansas State (2013).

A Boise State graduate and certified strength and conditioning specialist by the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA), Pitman was the head strength and conditioning coach at Boise State from 1999-2006.

Pitman worked with the football program at Colorado, while also overseeing the speed, strength and conditioning needs for each of the Buffaloes' varsity programs. He also worked at Western Carolina from 2011-12 as the Strength and Conditioning Coordinator.

A three-year letterwinner for the Broncos from 1990-92, Pitman initially walked on to Boise State in 1988 before earning a scholarship and starting at center for two years. He was a member of the Broncos' 1990 team that finished 10-4 and reached the semifinals of the NCAA Division I-AA Playoffs.

He was recognized as an NSCA Strength and Conditioning All-American in 1992, one of just 10 Broncos in school history to win the award at the time.

He graduated from Boise State with a degree in health promotion in 1993, and then worked as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach at Minnesota. He earned his master's in education from Minnesota in 1995.

Certified as a level one club coach by USA Weightlifting in 1994, Pitman took his first full-time position as a collegiate strength coach at Montana State (1995-97), working with football, women's skiing and women's track and field.

He worked at San Jose State from 1997-99, supervising the training programs for all of the Spartans' varsity sports, before joining his alma mater.

CHRISTIAN ROBINSON

LINEBACKERS/DEFENSIVE RUN GAME COORDINATOR

Christian Robinson joined the Auburn football coaching staff in January 2022 as the Tigers' linebackers coach and defensive run game coordinator. Robinson spent the previous four seasons as linebackers coach at Florida, where he helped the Gators finished seventh nationally in scoring defense in 2019. That season the Gators were among the tops in the SEC in numerous defensive categories and were third nationally in red zone defense.

Among the linebackers he coached at Florida include NFL draft picks Jonathan Greenard and Vosean Joseph, as well as Ventrell Miller and Mohamoud Diabate. Miller led the Gators in tackles in 2020, while Diabate had the most tackles among all Gator defenders the last two seasons.

Prior to his time in Gainesville, Robinson was a graduate assistant at the University of Georgia (2013-14), Ole Miss (2015-16) and Mississippi State (2017).

At Ole Miss, Robinson worked with the defensive line, helping tutor 2015 Hornung Award finalist and first team All-American Robert Nkemdiche, who was taken in the first round (29th overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals. Rebel defensive linemen combined for 24 sacks that season, led by a school record-tying 10 from sophomore Marquis Haynes.

A Norcross, Ga., native, played at the University of Georgia from 2009-12, playing in 51 games with 17 starts as a linebacker, compiling 159 tackles, 22.5 TFLs and 4.5 sacks. He was a part of back-to-back SEC Eastern Division title teams in 2011 and 2012.

Robinson began his coaching career at his alma mater in 2013 as a defensive graduate assistant and quality control assistant. During the two-year span (2013-14) he spent in Athens, Ga., the Bulldogs led the SEC in turnover margin and ranked among the nation's best pass defenses in 2014.

Robinson earned a bachelor's degree in sports management from Georgia in 2012 and attended mini-camp with the St. Louis Rams before pursuing a coaching career.

Robinson married the former Kaley Crook on July 3, 2021.

JEFF SCHMEDDING

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Jeff Schmedding is in his second season at Auburn and first as defensive coordinator after serving as assistant head coach, linebackers coach and defensive run game coordinator in 2021. Schmedding spent the past two seasons on Harsin's staff at Boise State as the defensive coordinator (play caller) for the Broncos.

Schmedding mentored linebacker Zakoby McClain who was a second team All-SEC selection after leading the Tigers in tackles (96) while fellow linebacker Chandler Wooten was second with 95 total stops.

After coaching Boise State's outside linebackers in 2019, he took over inside linebackers for the 2020 campaign. Schmedding's first season leading the defense was a strong one for the Broncos as they claimed the Mountain West championship with a 12-2 record and 8-0 mark in conference play. The Boise defense put together an impressive year, finishing in the top 15 nationally in team sacks (37) and in the top 25 nationally in scoring defense (20.6 ppg).

In 2019, Junior STUD end Curtis Weaver was named the 2019 Mountain West Defensive Player of the Year while leading the conference and finishing fifth nationally in sacks (13.5). His 34-career sacks are a Mountain West record as well. Weaver was selected in the fifth round of the NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins. Junior defensive back Kekaula Kaniho was also named to the All-Mountain West First Team. Kaniho was named to the 2020 Lott IMPACT Trophy Watch List heading into the fall. Additionally, the Broncos had five other defensive players named to the 2019 Mountain West Second Team.

Prior to arriving in Boise, Schmedding spent the 15 seasons (2004-18) at Eastern Washington, helping to lead the Eagles to the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) National Championship in 2010. EWU also made the national title game in 2018 – one of 10 total FCS Playoff appearances during Schmedding's time with the program. In 2018, the Eagles' defense was first in the FCS in defensive touchdowns scored and second in forced turnovers.

Schmedding served as EWU's defensive coordinator from 2015-18, while also coaching safeties and rovers. He spent seven seasons (2008-14) as the Eagles' special teams coordinator, coaching linebackers (2008-09), safeties and nickels (2010-14) during that time. He began his career at EWU as a graduate assistant (2004-06) where he spent time with linebackers and the secondary before being promoted to a full-time role as safeties coach in 2007.

Schmedding's previous coordination of special teams was particularly impressive as well, especially in 2014. The Eagles ranked third in the FCS with four blocked punts, and was 10th in net punting (38.4), 15th in kickoff return average (22.8) and 28th in punt returns (11.8). That season, EWU scored touchdowns on a kickoff return, punt return and kickoff team.

As a position coach, Schmedding tutored several of the finest safeties in EWU history. Tevin McDonald earned All-America and first-team All-Big Sky Conference accolades in 2014 for the Eagles before signing a free agent NFL contract with the Oakland Raiders. In 2013, McDonald earned third-team All-Big Sky honors as well. Schmedding's safeties in 2012 featured Academic All-American Jeff Minnerly, Freshman All-American Jordan Tonani and second-team All-Big Sky selection Allen Brown.

In 2010 and 2011, Schmedding coached All-America safety Matt Johnson, who earned first-team All-Big Sky Conference honors both seasons before being selected in the fourth round of the NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys. Minnerly was honorable mention All-Big Sky both seasons. Schmedding also coached cornerbacks in 2011, a group which included eventual three-time first-team All-Big Sky selection T.J. Lee III. In 2010, EWU led the FCS with 26 interceptions.

Schmedding coached linebackers in 2008 and 2009, including J.C. Scherritt, who in 2009 was named to all six All-America teams and was second in the voting for the Buck Buchanan Award given to the top defensive player in the FCS. He set school and Big Sky records with 170 total tackles. He went on to win the award in 2010 and was a captain and Grey Cup champion for the Edmonton Eskimos.

Schmedding earned his bachelor's degree in physical education and coaching from Eastern Washington in 2002. A native of Spokane, Wash., he graduated from University High School where he was a standout wrestler and football player – he was the runner-up at the State 3A Wrestling Championships in the 215-pound division. Schmedding and his wife, Kristine, have been married for nearly 15 years and have two sons, Jack and Blake.

CARNELL WILLIAMS RUNNING BACKS

Carnell 'Cadillac' Williams, a former all-American at Auburn, Williams is in his fourth season as the Tigers' running backs coach.

Under Williams' tutelage, running back Tank Bigsby has posted a 1,000-yard rushing season and was named the SEC

Co-Freshman of the Year and Associated Press SEC Newcomer of the Year after leading all freshmen in the conference with 834 rushing yards in 2020.

Bigsby rushed for 1,099 yards and 10 touchdowns during his sophomore campaign in 2021, while freshman Jarquez Hunter gained 593 yards. During Bigsby's freshman year, he was the first Auburn rookie in school history to rush for three consecutive 100-yard games and his 834 yards were the second most all-time at Auburn by a rookie.

During his first season in 2019, the Tigers posted five 100-yard rushing games and D.J. Williams earned SEC Freshman of the Week honors for his performance against LSU. In three seasons, Williams' backs have tallied nine 100-yard games and four SEC weekly honors.

As a player at Auburn, Williams helped lead Auburn to an undefeated season in 2004 while earning All-America honors that year. The 2005 NFL Rookie of the Year, Williams had a seven-year NFL career before entering the coaching ranks.

A native of Gadsden, Alabama, and product of Etowah High School, Williams finished his Auburn career (2001-04) with 3,831 yards on 741 attempts with 45 touchdowns. He broke the Auburn career record of most running attempts, passing Joe Cribbs, and most touchdowns scored, passing Bo Jackson, while finishing second in total rushing yards and all-purpose yards.

As a senior in 2004, Williams helped lead the Tigers to one of the best seasons in program history, winning an SEC Championship en route to a perfect 13-0 season and a Sugar Bowl victory. He led Auburn in rushing with 1,165 yards and 12 touchdowns while tallying 1,718 all-purpose yards. He earned All-America honors, was the SEC Special Teams Player of the Year, and named to the All-SEC team.

In his four seasons at Auburn, Williams earned nine SEC Player of the Week honors, the most in league history. During his time on the Plains, the Tigers were 37-14 and won three SEC Western Division titles (2001, '02, '04).

He remains as Auburn's No. 2 all-time rushing and is the Tigers' career leader in rushing attempts and rushing touchdowns.

The fifth pick overall pick of the 2005 NFL draft by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Williams was named the NFL Rookie of the Year after leading all rookies in rushing yards with 1,178, while posting six 100-yard rushing games in 14 starts. Williams spent six seasons with Tampa Bay before spending his final season in 2011 with the St. Louis Rams.

After being slowed by injuries for several years, Williams was narrowly edged for the AP 2009 Comeback Player of the Year Award by Tom Brady, finishing second after rushing for 821 yards on 210 carries with a 3.9 average and four touchdowns during the 2009 season.

Williams finished his NFL career with 4,038 yards with 21 touchdowns and 148 receptions for 1,002 yards and four scores.

Williams' coaching career started at Henderson State in 2015 where he served as the running backs coach. After a stint at the University of West Georgia in 2016, Williams was the running backs coach for IMG Academy in Bradenton, Florida for two seasons (2017-18). Williams also served as the running backs coach for the Birmingham Iron of the Alliance of American Football (AAF).

Williams graduated from Auburn in December 2014. He and his wife Evan Williams have two boys: Cole and Cuinn.

DR. CHRISTOPHER B. ROBERTS

President, Auburn University

Christopher B. Roberts began his appointment as Auburn University's 21st president in May 2022.

President Roberts leads the university's four divisions, including Auburn's main campus with its more than 31,000 students and 5,500 faculty and staff, as well as Auburn University at Montgomery, the Alabama Cooperative Extension System and the Alabama Agricultural Experiment Station, a joint enterprise with Alabama A&M University. Roberts is an accomplished scholar who understands that research and teaching excellence, together with service and public engagement, are at the very heart of the state's R1 land-, sea- and space-grant institution. The R1 designation in the Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education recognizes Auburn as a top-level research institution. As the university's CEO, Roberts marshals the institution's $1.54 billion annual budget and vast resources, while spearheading the university's strategic vision and advancing the Auburn's ever-growing research enterprise and economic development.

Prior to his presidency, Roberts served as the dean of Auburn's Samuel Ginn College of Engineering from 2012 to 2022. The college has more than 6,000 students and about 400 faculty and staff members. Roberts was a factor in the success of the university's Because This is Auburn — A Campaign for Auburn University, which raised $1.2 billion. Under Roberts' leadership, more than $357 million in donations to the college were made during and since the campaign.

He earned a bachelor's degree in chemical engineering from the University of Missouri and master's and doctoral degrees in chemical engineering from the University of Notre Dame. He began his career at Auburn in 1994 as an assistant professor in the Department of Chemical Engineering and became department chair in 2003. He also served as the George E. and Dorothy Stafford Uthlaut Professor of Chemical Engineering. He has a strong record of scholarly and academic achievement in nanotechnology and synthetic fuels. Roberts has published close to 150 peer-reviewed journal articles and book chapters in leading chemical engineering, chemistry, materials and related journals and has given over 300 conference presentations, invited seminars and lectures. He has received 45 research grants and contracts from government agencies and corporations, such as the National Science Foundation, U.S. Department of Energy, U.S. Department of Defense, the USDA-Agriculture and Food Research Initiative and Boeing.

He has been honored with numerous awards for his accomplishments and contributions to the field of engineering. Some of those recognitions include the University of Notre Dame's Graduate School Distinguished Alumnus Award in 2015; the University of Missouri's Chemical Engineering Academy of Distinguished Alumni in 2014; and the National Organization of Black Chemists and Chemical Engineers President's Award for Fostering Minority Engagement in 2012 and the SEC Academic Consortium Faculty Achievement Award in 2012.

He and his wife, Tracy, have two children and enjoy cheering on Auburn's national championship-winning Division 1 athletics programs.

AUBURN UNIVERSITY

A HISTORY OF EXCELLENCE

Auburn University has a history of excellence, tradition, and forward-thinking that dates back to its founding in 1856 and becoming a land-grant institution in 1872. It continues those aspects today with strong, committed faculty, engaged students, and devoted alumni.

The institution has had four official names: East Alabama Male College (1856-72), Agricultural and Mechanical College (1872-99), Alabama Polytechnic Institute (1899-1960), and Auburn University (1960-present). The fall 2021 enrollment was 31,526, with students choosing from more than 150 degree options in 15 colleges and schools at the undergraduate, graduate, and professional levels.

U.S. News & World Report ranks Auburn as a top 50 public university in the U.S. and lists Auburn as the top university in Alabama. The Princeton Review includes Auburn on its 2021 list of “Best 386 Colleges,” including No. 1 for Best Recreational Facilities, No. 3 for Students Pack the Stadium, No. 8 for Students Love It Here, and No. 10 for Happiest Students. Money has proclaimed Auburn the best value in Alabama.

Auburn is one of the few universities to carry the torch as a land-, sea-, and space-grant university, and the exceptional learning environment at Auburn prepares students to excel in a global society. According to the National Survey of Student Engagement, Auburn provides a supportive campus environment, and its students report higher satisfaction with their overall academic experience than students at peer institutions. Kiplinger’s places the university on its list of “100 Best Public College Values,” a recognition that means Auburn delivers more for less. As a result, 93 percent of recent graduates indicate that they would choose Auburn all over again.

A TOWN AND GOWN PARTNERSHIP

The city of Auburn consistently receives accolades for the lifestyle and amenities it offers—Auburn earned a top spot on Southern Living’s list of “The South’s Best College Towns.” The city has also been featured in numerous lists of best places to live and retire in publications such as Forbes and U.S. News & World Report.

Situated on a verdant campus of 1,841 acres, the university is a hub of activity in one of the state’s fastest growing cities, one frequently cited as a top place for entrepreneurs and families alike. Auburn is in east-central Alabama, approximately 30 miles from the Georgia border, 100 miles southwest of Atlanta, 100 miles southeast of Birmingham, and 50 miles east of Montgomery. With a mild climate and a wealth of cultural and recreational offerings, Auburn is an exceptional place that’s full of small-town charm and offers an atmosphere unlike any other.

MEANINGFUL ECONOMIC AND SOCIETAL IMPACT

The impact of Auburn's research and service provides a $4 billion economic contribution to the state of Alabama, including the creation of more than 27,000 jobs. Auburn's visionary research helps create practical, innovative solutions for the state, nation, and world. With an accomplished, international faculty, the university boasts areas of expertise in additive manufacturing (3D printing); cyber; energy and environment; health sciences and food systems; transportation; Gulf research and restoration; and improvements in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM) education.

Auburn is on the leading edge of the advances shaping the 21st-century landscape, and the university regularly partners with a list of innovators that includes Delta Air Lines and NASA. Through Auburn's commitment to its land-grant mission of instruction, research, and outreach, the university fosters an outstanding academic environment that readies its graduates to become societal leaders.

TRADITION OF SUCCESS

Generations of Tigers have been propelled to success by their Auburn education. The university's list of accomplished alumni includes the CEO of Apple, the founders of Habitat for Humanity and Wikipedia, an Oscar-winning actress, many sports legends, and six astronauts. Auburn's in-demand alumni are regularly hired by multinational corporations, and they are accepted by—and thrive at—some of the world's most prestigious professional programs and graduate schools. In fact, 97 percent of recent graduates feel their Auburn education has enhanced their opportunity for advancement.

The worldwide network of Auburn alumni is 233,000-strong. The Auburn Alumni Association has more than 45,000 members and contributes to a significant number of scholarships, professorships, and faculty awards each year. In addition, there are more than 100 Auburn clubs throughout the country dedicated to raising and supporting scholarship funds for incoming freshmen.

AUBURN TRADITIONS

For more than 100 years, eagles have been associated with Auburn football. From a presence on the sidelines to rousing flights over the field, WAR EAGLE has become an Auburn icon.

The role of Auburn's eagles is to promote wildlife conservation as a part of the education initiatives of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service and the College of Veterinary Medicine's Southeastern Raptor Center. The USFWS permits the raptor center to house eagles and include them on hundreds of educational presentations each year—including Auburn's home football games. Currently, flighted eagles and numerous other non-releasable raptors are showcased in these educational programs. Eagles stir emotions in many people, as they have symbolized strength, power, and courage as well as other important values such as freedom, American heritage, and the preservation of our environment.

The tradition of the pregame eagle flight began in 2000, when golden eagle Tiger, War Eagle VI, made a short flight from the endzone to midfield. In the two decades since, the flights have grown into one of the most recognizable and widely anticipated college football traditions in the nation.

Tiger's first 50-yard hop has evolved into circling, soaring flights around the stadium. Her successor, a male golden named Nova was War Eagle VII, retired to his home at the Southeastern Raptor Center in 2016. Since Nova's retirement, Aurea, a female golden who is War Eagle VIII, thrills crowds at Jordan-Hare alongside 25-year-old Spirit, the only bald eagle to have flown in this beloved role.

"WAR EAGLE"

"War Eagle" is Auburn's battle cry, not Auburn's nickname. There are several legends concerning the origin of the War Eagle battle cry, dating back to 1864 and the Civil War at the Battle of the Wilderness in Virginia.

AUBURN TRADITIONS

I believe that this is a practical world and that I can count only on what I earn. Therefore, I believe in work, hard work.
I believe in education, which gives me the knowledge to work wisely and trains my mind and my hands to work skillfully.
I believe in honesty and truthfulness, without which I cannot win the respect and confidence of my fellow men.
I believe in a sound mind, in a sound body and a spirit that is not afraid, and in clean sports that develop these qualities.
I believe in obedience to law because it protects the rights of all.
I believe in the human touch, which cultivates sympathy with my fellow men and mutual helpfulness and brings happiness for all.
I believe in my Country, because it is a land of freedom and because it is my own home, and that I can best serve that country by “doing justly, loving mercy, and walking humbly with my God.”
And because Auburn men and women believe in these things, I believe in Auburn and love it.

- George Petrie (1943)

AUBURN ALMA MATER

Composed by Bill Wood '24 | Word Revision 1960

On the rolling plains of Dixie
'Neath its sun-kissed sky,
Proudly stands, our Alma Mater
Banners high.

To thy name we'll sing thy praise,
From hearts that love so true,
And pledge to thee our
Loyalty the ages through.

We hail thee, Auburn, and we vow
To work for thy just fame,
And hold in memory as we do now
Thy cherished name.

Hear thy student voices swelling,
Echoes strong and clear,
Adding laurels to thy fame
Enshrined so dear.

From thy hallowed halls we'll part,
And bid thee sad adieu;
Thy sacred trust we'll bear with us
The ages through.

We hail thee, Auburn, and we vow
To work for thy just fame,
And hold in memory as we do now
Thy cherished name.

TRADITIONS: TIGER WALK

Tiger Walk is an Auburn tradition that began in the early 1960s when Auburn players walked from Sewell Hall to the football stadium as fans lined Donahue Drive to wish the team well. Over the years, Tiger Walk has grown into a major part of game day at Auburn, so much so that it is listed on the players' game weekend itinerary. The largest Tiger Walk is believed to have taken place prior to the 1989 Iron Bowl, when more than 20,000 well-wishers lined the street. Every Tiger Walk prior to home games draws thousands, and it has become a tradition for Auburn football players as they enter stadiums on the road. Tiger Walk traditionally begins two hours before kickoff for every game at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

ROLLING TOOMER'S CORNER

The rolling of Toomer's Corner was named in 2018 as the nation's "Best Sports Tradition" by the USA Today 10 Best Readers' Choice travel award contest. Toomer's Corner, where Auburn's campus meets the city of Auburn at the intersection of College Street and Magnolia Avenue, has long been the gathering place for Auburn athletic celebrations. After significant sports victories, Auburn students and citizens alike have joined forces to "roll" the Auburn Oaks at Toomer's Corner with toilet tissue.

Although there have been various legends as to how the Toomer's Corner tradition began, one of the more popular stories centers around when Toomer's Drugs had the only telegraph in the city. As the story goes, during away football games, when employees of the local drug store received news of a win, they would throw the ticker tape from the telegraph onto the power lines.

ROLLING TOOMER'S CORNER

The current Auburn Oaks at Toomer's Corner were planted in February 2017, and fans are asked not to roll the trees because they are not fully established. Fans are, however, encouraged to roll the adjacent trees. In 2016, the university planted 10 descendants of the original Auburn Oaks along a curved walkway in Samford Park, with trees reaching from Samford Hall to Toomer's Corner. The 15-year-old oaks were cultivated from acorns from the original trees, a project managed by Auburn's Forestry Club and Wildlife Society. Fans are also asked not to roll these descendent trees as they are not fully developed. Members of the Auburn Family have the opportunity to name a tree for themselves or someone of their choosing in recognition of a $50,000 philanthropic gift benefitting the School of Forestry and Wildlife Sciences.

JORDAN-HARE STADIUM

Auburn's showcase football stadium seats 87,451 with 70 luxury suites located between the lower level and upper deck on the East side. The stadium was dedicated Nov. 30, 1939, with 7,500 seats. Ten years later 14,000 more seats were added and the stadium was named Cliff Hare Stadium (named after a member of Auburn's first football team and eventual professor and dean of the School of Chemistry), although only 12 home games were played there over that 10-year span. Additional seats were added in 1955, 1960 and 1970. The West upper deck was completed in 1980; the East upper deck and suites were finished for the 1987 season. The facility was renamed Jordan-Hare Stadium in 1973, recognizing Hall of Fame coach Ralph "Shug" Jordan.

The turf at Jordan-Hare Stadium was officially named after Pat Dye, Auburn's Hall of Fame coach and athletics director, prior to the 2005 Iron Bowl. The Tigers posted a 99-39-4 record in 12 seasons under Dye from 1981-92, and won four SEC championships.

SOUTH END ZONE RENOVATION

A leadership gift from Raymond and Kathryn Harbert allowed for the construction of the Harbert Family Recruiting Center, a gameday support and recruiting facility in the southwest corner of Jordan-Hare Stadium that opened prior to the 2018 season. The five-level, 44,000-square-foot facility includes exceptional recruiting space for football and Olympic sports, a club space for fans, a press box for media, and expanded and renovated locker rooms.

The Harbert Family Recruiting Center is the gold standard in college athletics recruiting. Also included in the redevelopment was the redesign of the former press box into a new premium seating experience for Auburn football’s most loyal donors on the stadium’s west side. Known as the Broadway Club, this luxury area offers the highest level of service within an upscale atmosphere and includes a spectacular view of the 50-yard line, deluxe interior finishes and furnishings available to 120 patrons.

HEISMAN STATUES

The Auburn Family honored three of its all-time greats in a stirring ceremony under sunny skies on the east side of Jordan-Hare Stadium on Saturday, April 14, 2012.

A crowd of thousands roared as former Heisman Trophy winners Pat Sullivan, Bo Jackson and Cam Newton took the stage moments before towering statues immortalizing the Auburn greats from three different eras were unveiled.

How many universities can claim John Heisman, the namesake of the Heisman Trophy, as coach and also have a Heisman winner? Just one: Auburn. And Auburn does not just have one Heisman winner; the Tigers tout three.

PAT SULLIVAN 1971

Auburn quarterback Pat Sullivan picked up the Tigers' first Heisman Trophy in 1971 after throwing for 20 touchdowns and racking up 2,096 yards of total offense. He led Auburn to a 9-2 record and a Sugar Bowl appearance in his senior season.

HEISMAN STATUES

BO JACKSON 1985

Bo Jackson plowed through defenses in 1985 for 6.4 yards per carry, earning Auburn's second Heisman Trophy. The three-sport athlete ran for 1,786 yards and 17 touchdowns while helping the Tigers to an 8-4 record and a Cotton Bowl appearance.

CAM NEWTON 2010

Cam Newton put together one of the most remarkable college football seasons ever in 2010, throwing for 30 touchdowns and rushing for 20 while leading Auburn to a 14-0 record and the BCS National Championship. Newton tallied 4,327 yards of total offense while completing 66.1% of his passes.

THE IRON BOWL

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Of the first 53 meetings between Auburn and Alabama, 48 took place in Birmingham. The name “Iron Bowl” comes from Birmingham’s historic role in the country’s iron industry.

1893

The first Iron Bowl was played on Feb. 22, 1893 in Birmingham with Auburn taking the 32-22 win. The Tigers won the first two meetings and six of the first seven.

1982

The climax to a 23-22 Auburn victory over Alabama in 1982 was Bo Jackson’s “Bo Over the Top” 1-yard leap over the Alabama goal line, which capped a 66-yard drive and set the stage for what Auburn people consider the Tigers’ “coming out” party in the 1980s.

1972

Trailing 16-3 with six minutes left, underdog Auburn’s David Langner returned two blocked Alabama punts to win the game 17-16, handing the Crimson Tide their first loss of the season and ending hopes of a national title.

1989

The first time Auburn and Alabama met in Auburn was in 1989, and the No. 11 Tigers beat the No. 2 Crimson Tide, 30-20, on Dec. 2, 1989.

2010

Down 24-0 in the second quarter, the Auburn defense inspired a school-record comeback for a 28-27 win in Tuscaloosa in 2010, en route to a national championship.

KICK SIX

With one second remaining in the game, Auburn's Chris Davis returned a missed field goal 109 yards to give the Tigers a 34-28 win in the 2013 Iron Bowl.

Since 1892, Auburn and Georgia have met every year except three - 1917, 1918 and 1943. The teams did not play in 1917-18 because of World War I and 1943 because of World War II.

1982

Auburn and Georgia first met in 1892 with the Tigers taking a 10-0 win; the game, played on Feb. 20 in Piedmont Park in Atlanta, is the first recorded Auburn football game.

Carnell Williams set an Auburn record with 41 rush attempts in the Tigers' 24-17 win at Georgia on Nov. 10, 2001.
